A man with a beard and short dark hair is leaning against a wall made of vertical corrugated metal sheets that are heavily rusted. He is wearing a bright red long-sleeved work shirt and matching red trousers. He is also wearing black rubber boots. His left leg is propped up against the wall, and his arms are crossed. The ground he is standing on appears to be wooden planks or a pallet. In the top left corner, there is a yellow rectangular logo with the word 'altitude' in a bold, sans-serif font and 'WORKWEAR' in a smaller, all-caps font below it.
